My dear Sir

It was in the year 1801 that I last left Lisbon: & since a Revolution have set down, or broken up & scattered the society in which I lived & with which I was connected. I can however procure letters for ~~to~~ Mr Dever, which shall be franked to him from London, as soon as you let me know when they are to be addressed.

I should fear that he may wait long at the "storm-ward Bermudas" before he find a passage to Lisbon. The voyage however is his best chance.

Believe me my dear Sir

Yrs very truly

Robert Southey.
